Philosophy

The Roger Bacon Academy School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan sets forth the procedures and expectations for ensuring a safe and orderly environment for learning. It is our belief that all children can learn. In this, we maintain a position of “no exceptions, and no excuses” for all students. We maintain a disciplined, caring classroom environment that emphasizes traditional values. Every student who is willing to pledge self-discipline, honesty, and perseverance can excel to their fullest potential at The Roger Bacon Academy.

We expect every student to devote full attention to every subject. A mandatory prerequisite for learning to occur is an orderly, disciplined environment. Students are required to strive for positive goals and virtues. Behavior that is not conducive to the achievement of these goals and virtues will not be allowed. Students must avoid behavior that impairs their own educational achievement or that of others. Students must show respect toward teachers, administrators, and all other school employees, and recognize and respect the rights of all students and adults. When students fail to use self-control and self-discipline, disciplinary consequences will be utilized to restore order to the learning environment as well as to protect the rights of others.

Students and parents/legal guardians are required to sign for the receipt of the School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan and Student/Parent Handbook. Any student, parent, or legal guardian that does not sign that they have received the School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan and Student/Parent Handbook shall not be relieved of any responsibilities in following the rules and guidelines set forth in these documents.

Statement of Purpose

The School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan serves to establish procedures for teachers and students that facilitate teaching and learning. All adults will encourage, model, and teach students the correct behaviors according to the School's philosophy. All schools within The Roger Bacon Academy organization will create a positive, safe, and professional environment which encourages mutual respect between adults and students.

General Behavioral Expectations

All staff and students will uphold and strive to meet the values and morals of the School Pledge.

School Pledge

I pledge to keep myself healthy in body, mind, and spirit -

staying physically fit, mentally awake,
and morally straight.

I pledge to be truthful in all my works - guarding against the stains of falsehood from the fascination with experts,

the temptation of vanity,
the comfort of popular opinion and custom, the ease of equivocation and compromise, and from over-reliance on rational argument.

I pledge to be virtuous in all my deeds,

with the courage to exemplify faith in my beliefs, hope for a better future, and charity towards my neighbor - with prudence in new undertakings, with justice when called upon to judge, with fortitude in the face of adversity, and with temperance toward temptation.

I pledge to be obedient and loyal to those in authority in my family,

in my school, and in my community and country,

So long as I shall live.

Guidelines for Teaching Student Responsibilities and Discipline

All staff will establish proper actions and attitudes in accordance with the School Pledge and School Handbooks. Our support and encouragement will be demonstrated through these important procedures:

1. Follow all procedures put in place by administration.
2. Set high personal standards, and diligently strive to achieve them.
3. Teach and model the importance of being responsible, being positive, doing one's best, cooperating, and treating everyone with respect.
4. Demonstrate a mutual respect between students and staff.
5. Present a unified front at all times.
6. Provide positive feedback to students.
7. Establish clear/specific guidelines and implement consistent consequences to ensure success.

Responsibility and Discipline: An Ongoing Process

Establishing a sense of responsibility and discipline is an on-going process, and not a one-time endeavor. Staff will work continually to achieve consistency. Procedures will be revised as needed.

We understand that behavior and effort are often impacted by the relationships we have built with the students. Therefore, all staff will maintain a professional demeanor at all times, demonstrate their leadership in the classroom, and follow procedures set forth by The Roger Bacon Academy and its Administrators.

Roles and Responsibility: Discipline is Everyone's Responsibility

Student's Role in Self-Control and Self-Discipline

Students will demonstrate the behaviors as written in the School's expectations. The School's expectations are written to promote learning and encourage self-control during school as well as during all school-related activities. Students must be prepared to participate fully in the learning process, avoid behavior that impairs their own educational achievement or that of others, show respect for the knowledge and authority of teachers, administrators, and other school employees, and recognize and respect the rights of other students and adults. When students fail to use self-control and self-discipline, disciplinary consequences are used to restore order to the learning environment as well as to protect the rights of others.

Parent's Role in Discipline

Parents are encouraged to participate in every aspect of the education of their children. Without the cooperation and support of the parents, it is difficult for the school to effectively help a student reach his or her fullest potential. An important role for parents in discipline is to continually show the child your interest and support of how he or she is doing and behaving at school. When the child sees that his/her parents or guardians are actively interested in whether or not they are doing their best, the student is given an incentive for excellence. Parents will be informed by the teacher throughout the school year about their child's progress. This information will include school-wide citizenship. Other important roles include, but are not limited to:

- Maintaining open communication with the school.
- Notifying the teacher about specific concerns you may have.
- Going to school meetings whenever possible.

In the event of severe or recurring behavior problems, parents will be asked to participate in the development of a Student/Teacher Behavior Strategies Plan (Appendix A). Parents and staff working together will help the student learn behaviors that will increase their success. School classroom rules, rewards, and consequences will be sent home with the students at the beginning of the school year. An acknowledgement form is to be signed and returned to the classroom teacher by a date designated by the Administration of the school. If the acknowledgement form is not returned, the teacher will send a second copy. Any parent, who does not return a signed form by the designated date, will be sent the form via US Mail. The classroom teacher is to keep the signed acknowledgement form in the student's individual folder.

Teacher's Role in Discipline

School discipline is the main responsibility of each teacher. Therefore, the teacher is the very center of an effective school management plan. Teachers will continually emphasize the importance of doing ones best, and following all school expectations, procedure, and rules. Teachers will put more energy into reinforcing successful procedures (4:1 ratio – four positive statements to one negative statement) and helping students make good choices, rather than trying to “control” behavior. In the event of a behavior problem (other than a “severe” behavior), the teacher will re-teach classroom expectations and lead the student through a “do it again” exercise until the student or class has mastered the appropriate behavior. Teachers will also closely monitor all students, their transitions, instructional time, and free time. Teachers must be aware of where students are at all times.

Classroom teachers will post Classroom Rules and Consequences at the front of the classroom as well as a list of tangible rewards.

1. School rules will be taught and reinforced for the first 30 days of school, the first week of each quarter, and as necessary throughout the year.

2. Students will be taught these rules to mastery through every day modeling and specific character education lessons provided by classroom teachers or resource teachers.

All members of The Roger Bacon Academy staff will be:

1. Consistent – Establishing and maintaining diligent consistency is the key to the successful implementation of behavior management programs. Students must know your expectations thoroughly, and understand that expectations do not change from day to day, or from student-to-student.
2. Patient – Occasionally, students may not respond to discipline immediately. Teachers must remain patient and communicate genuine concern for the student’s well-being. Remaining consistent with expectations and specific positive feedback will help build a trusting relationship with the student.
3. Leaders In Your Classroom – Teaching expectations and consistently reinforcing them enables more students to remain in your classroom. When students are in your classroom, it enables you to increase their learning and overall success.
  - a. Teachers and staff will follow the Six Components of School-Wide Positive Behavior Support:
    - i. Define expectations and routines. Expectations and routines are to be:
      - ~ Observable
      - ~ Acknowledgeable
      - ~ Teachable
    - ii. Teach behaviors and routines directly in all settings.
    - iii. Actively monitor behavior (The Three P’s: Presence, Praise, Proximity).
    - iv. Acknowledge appropriate behavior (4:1 ratio of positive to corrective statements). Reward good behavior.
    - v. Review data to make decisions.
    - vi. Use Pre-Correction, Boosters, and De-Escalation Strategies.

Ideas and Suggestions for Positive Reinforcement in the Classroom

- Individual Student Classroom Economy
  - Tickets
  - Coins/tokens
  - Happy Sticks
  - “Gotchas”
  - Sticker chart
  - Digital Communication App (Class Dojo)
- Whole Group Reward
  - Fill up the jar with marbles for a pizza party, ice cream party, etc.
  - Compliment Chain-when whole group is given a compliment from an outside staff member, students are rewarded with a link
  - Spell out a word to win a prize (example: B-R- O-W-N-I-E-S)
  - You/Me game to earn a Brain Break
  - Classroom Communication App whole class total goal is met for a reward

Redeeming Individual Rewards

Teachers will come up with a plan that works best for their classroom for students to cash in on their individual rewards. Cash in times should be weekly at a minimum. Teachers will discuss and decide as a grade level the best time(s) for students to turn in their tokens for a reward. Grade levels are expected to have the same token economy across the grade level to ensure continuity.

Reward Redemption Process Suggestions:

- One morning a week during morning work, snack, and/or lunch.
- Upper grades can choose responsible students to oversee the cash in process along with the teacher.
- Elementary- during Green Friday reward time
- Middle School- 10-minute break, before Homeroom, etc.

Staff Role and Responsibility

Each staff member is an equal and contributing part of the discipline policy and procedure. Staff members are expected to interact with students in a fair and respectful manner. All staff members have a responsibility to intervene with any misbehavior observed in a common area by following the procedures recommended in this manual.

It is the responsibility of the staff to work as a team to organize, plan and provide a stimulating, non-threatening environment where students may engage in meaningful learning experiences. Policies and procedures are established to guide students toward growth. Parents, teachers, and others are responsible for the welfare and education of the students. All should cooperate in interpreting and enforcing the rules. It is the staff's responsibility to provide a positive environment conducive to learning, in which the student has an organized, stimulating, and non-threatening environment. Students will be rewarded for positive and appropriate behaviors.

Students will be held accountable for behavior that may adversely affect their education or the education of others. All members of the staff are responsible for teaching discipline to each student. Discipline is everyone's responsibility.

Administration's Role in Discipline

Administration is responsible for reviewing and updating the behavior and discipline plan as needed. Administration will assist teachers with rewarding students positively. Additionally, administration assists the staff in handling severe misbehavior. To maintain the effectiveness of office referrals, administration should only be used for major or severe behavioral problems. A child will be removed immediately when his/her behavior is an extreme disruption, is disrespectful toward adults, or endangers themselves or others.

Records will be kept by the teachers and administration. These records will be compiled and maintained as outlined in the North Carolina State Laws.

Behavior Expectations and Management Processes

School-Wide Classroom Expectations for Students

All Roger Bacon Academy Schools are academic institutions; therefore, all behaviors should reflect the seriousness of this endeavor. All students and personnel are to take personal responsibility for his or her behavior. We are committed to fostering in each student self-discipline, sound moral character, and respect for our community.

Students are required to be respectful, courteous, and polite to all adults and other students at all times. Students will be rewarded when these behaviors are displayed. When students fail to do this, disciplinary action will take place. Students are expected to be a role model for their peers by taking responsibility for their own work and actions. Students are required to obey the classroom rules and the standards in the Parent/Student Handbook.

Class Rules are to be posted in two visible areas in the classroom.

1. Stay in your own space.
2. Respect the rights of others.
3. Be prepared.
4. Honor the School Pledge.

In the elementary grades, each classroom will have a color chart with each child's name on it with the following color strips:

- Green: Great Day
- Yellow: Had some trouble following rules
- Red: Repeatedly broke classroom rules
- Blue: Call/Email home to discuss behavior with parents
- Purple: Office Referral (Class III and IV behaviors)

Whole group/class consequences or punishment is not acceptable or tolerated at The Roger Bacon Academy.

Resource Classes

Resource classes will complete a "High Five" positive behavior sheet after each class to give to the Homeroom teacher. This will have names of students who went above and beyond, followed directions, and were prepared for resource. These students are called "high fivers"! The report will also let teachers know of any students who needed additional reminders throughout the class period. Resource teachers are not to assign a whole class consequence for the Homeroom teacher to enforce.

Parents should be made aware of behavior issues and the contact should be documented by the teacher. Students will be made to pull strips throughout the day when their behavior or actions are not appropriate, such as misbehaving or failing to do homework. Once a child gets on purple, the teacher may fill out an office referral. It is important to remember each time a teacher sends a discipline problem outside of the classroom, that teacher loses a certain amount of authority with that student.

Acknowledgement System

The acknowledgement system is a feature of all Roger Bacon Academy School's behavioral expectation system. The behavioral expectation system focuses on acknowledging students who demonstrate characteristics of the School Pledge and overall behavioral expectations as written in this policy and the Parent/Student Handbook. This program works in conjunction with school-wide and classroom goals.

Examples of model behavior rewards may include, but not limited to, positive verbal feedback, standing ovation ceremonies, student of the month highlighting positive character traits, and treasure box rewards.

Encouraging Appropriate Behavior

The sequence for dealing with unwanted classroom behavior should be completed in the following manner:

1. Remind the whole group of expectations and desired behaviors.
2. Praise and reward a student nearby who is demonstrating appropriate behavior.
3. Move closer to the student who is not following the proper behavior.
4. At an appropriate time, tell the student that their behavior was not acceptable. The teacher must describe what is acceptable, and warn the student of the consequences if the inappropriate behavior continues.
5. Consequences for rules should be:
  - Straight-forward
  - Easily enforced
  - Easily administered
  - Operate as an effective deterrent

Chronic Misconduct

After all preventive measures have been exhausted, any student who exhibits an inappropriate behavior pattern over a period of time established by School Administration which interferes with the learning process of themselves, or other students, and is likely to recur, is considered chronic misconduct.

Teachers must teach students to assume responsibility for their actions. Therefore, in the case of a student who engages in chronic misconduct, the teacher, along with school staff has the responsibility to establish a Student/Teacher Goals and Strategies Plan (Appendix A) for that individual student. The teacher must involve the parents in this process.

The plan must consist of proactive interventions. The teacher, along with the designated student support team, will meet to discuss formulating the proper behavior management program. This team must evaluate the program put in place to determine if further interventions are to be implemented.

Behavior Management Process

All Roger Bacon Academy Schools will maintain a level system for handling behavioral violations of the School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan. A “Violations and Consequences” Chart is provided as a guideline for teachers and administrators when determining consequences.

Teachers must take concrete action when correcting behaviors. All corrective actions must correspond to the behavior being corrected. Behaviors and consequences must be documented on a Behavior Report or Office Referral depending upon whether the violation is Teacher-Managed or Headmaster-Managed.

Behavior Reports (BR) or Office Referrals (OR) are documents given to a student whom, after attempts at precorrection, redirection, or verbal warnings by a staff member, refuses to correct the identified behavior. Behavior Reports are Teacher-Managed (Class I and Class II). Office Referrals are Headmaster-Managed (Class III and IV). All behavior must reflect the expectations as written in the School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan, the Parent/Student Handbook, and the School Pledge.

When a BR or OR is issued, the parent/guardian will be notified via phone call, text, or email. Parents/legal guardians are asked to sign and return the BR or OR. If the BR or OR is not signed and returned, a copy of the document will be filed and counted as a behavior.

To maintain effectiveness, Office Referrals are to be reserved for severe and chronic misbehavior. All Teacher-Managed behaviors are to be handled by the classroom teacher or staff member witnessing the offense. In the rare occasion a staff member does not witness a behavior violation, but it is obvious that one has occurred; the teacher will separate witnesses from each other and have them anonymously write an account of what they witnessed. This documentation will be used by the appropriate personnel managing the behavior.

Elementary School Discipline Documentation

At the Elementary School, each grade level practices a uniform behavior plan including the type of warning system in place prior to students changing their color strips (see above School-Wide Classroom Expectations for color descriptors). If a student exhibits an undesirable behavior, the teacher will follow through with the grade level's behavior plan to promote consistency between classrooms. Each student will have a Behavior Sheet (Appendix C) or Daily Planner documenting daily behavior which requires a parent signature. The teacher will mark the report daily with the color that the child is on along with any other needed communications.

Elementary students that exhibit behavior that requires pulling a blue color strip will be written up using a Behavior Report (Appendix D – Class I & Appendix E – Class II) to document the behavior violation. Students that exhibit behavior that requires pulling a purple color strip, the highest level of color, will be written up using an Office Referral (Appendix F – Class III & Appendix G – Class IV) which will involve school administration. Typically, after a second purple violation, a conference with administration, teacher(s), and parent(s) is required to discuss a Behavior Improvement Plan (Appendix B).

Each Elementary teacher is responsible for logging Behavior Reports or Office Referrals in the Discipline Log.

Middle School Discipline Documentation

Each Middle School teacher is responsible for logging Behavior Reports or Office Referrals in the Discipline Log. This electronic log is a thorough documentation of behavior violations, the dates they occur, and details of the incident. This log will be used to determine specific levels of consequences.

1. Enter the Behavior Report or Office Referral in the Discipline Log.
2. Print two copies. Send one copy home with the student and keep one to file in your records. Note: Teachers must contact the parent/guardian to notify them of the Behavior Report.
3. Teachers are responsible for obtaining the Behavior Report with the parent/guardian signature.

Process for Chronic or Severe Behavior

Students committing chronic behavior violations within a nine-week period, may be placed on a Student/Teacher Behavior Goals and Strategies Plan (Appendix A) for an amount of time designated by the Administration.

1. The classroom teacher handling the behavior(s) will contact the parent to inform them that this plan will be completed with the student. If multiple teachers are having difficulty with a specific student, all teachers involved must meet to discuss the Plan. A representative from the group must be appointed to be the point-of-contact for parent communication. The teacher(s) and student will meet to complete this document.
2. If the behavior(s) persist after the specified time frame, the student will be referred to the designated student support team.

3. When Teacher-Managed behaviors occur, teachers are required to complete a Behavior Report (Class I – Appendix D, Class II - Appendix E). It is the teacher’s responsibility to contact the parent/guardian of the BR behavior and to ensure the BR is signed and returned. Unsigned BR’s do not negate documentation of the behavior.
4. When Office-Managed behaviors occur, teachers are required to complete an Office Referral (Class III – Appendix F, Class IV – Appendix G). This is required to accompany the student receiving this when he or she is sent to the office. Should the student need to be removed from the class immediately, the teacher must contact the designated personnel and send the child to the office with the required Office Referral documentation. On the same day, the teacher or staff member witnessing the incident is required to contact the parent by phone. This communication must be documented (see Elem. or MS Discipline Documentation). The Administrator or designee will address the situation when available. If an Administrator or designee is not readily available when the incident happens, the student will either be required to have a guardian sit with them in the classroom, will be sent home, or will wait in the office until the end of the day.
5. All Class III and Class IV behaviors are Office-Managed. Any student committing a Class III or IV Behavior Violation should be referred to the office immediately. The teacher will contact the School Secretary for coverage and is required to accompany the student to the office. Students who engage in Class III or IV behaviors will be removed from the classroom for a period of time. When the Administrator is available, he or she will notify the parents.
6. Procedures for response to specific Class III or IV Behavior:

Code Blue Definition: A behavior that is out-of-control, severe, and/or causing an extreme disruption or jeopardizing the safety of the student displaying the behavior and/or others.

Code Blue Procedure:

- a. Staff member calls Administrator for assistance. “I have a Code Blue in Room ____.”
- b. The Administrator or Support staff member responds to the call.
- c. Room Clear – If the student is throwing objects or students are involved in a fight or other extreme disruptive behavior, the teacher will remove the rest of the students from the classroom by instructing the students to exit the classroom or area in an orderly manner. This procedure must be practiced at the beginning of the year and throughout the year.

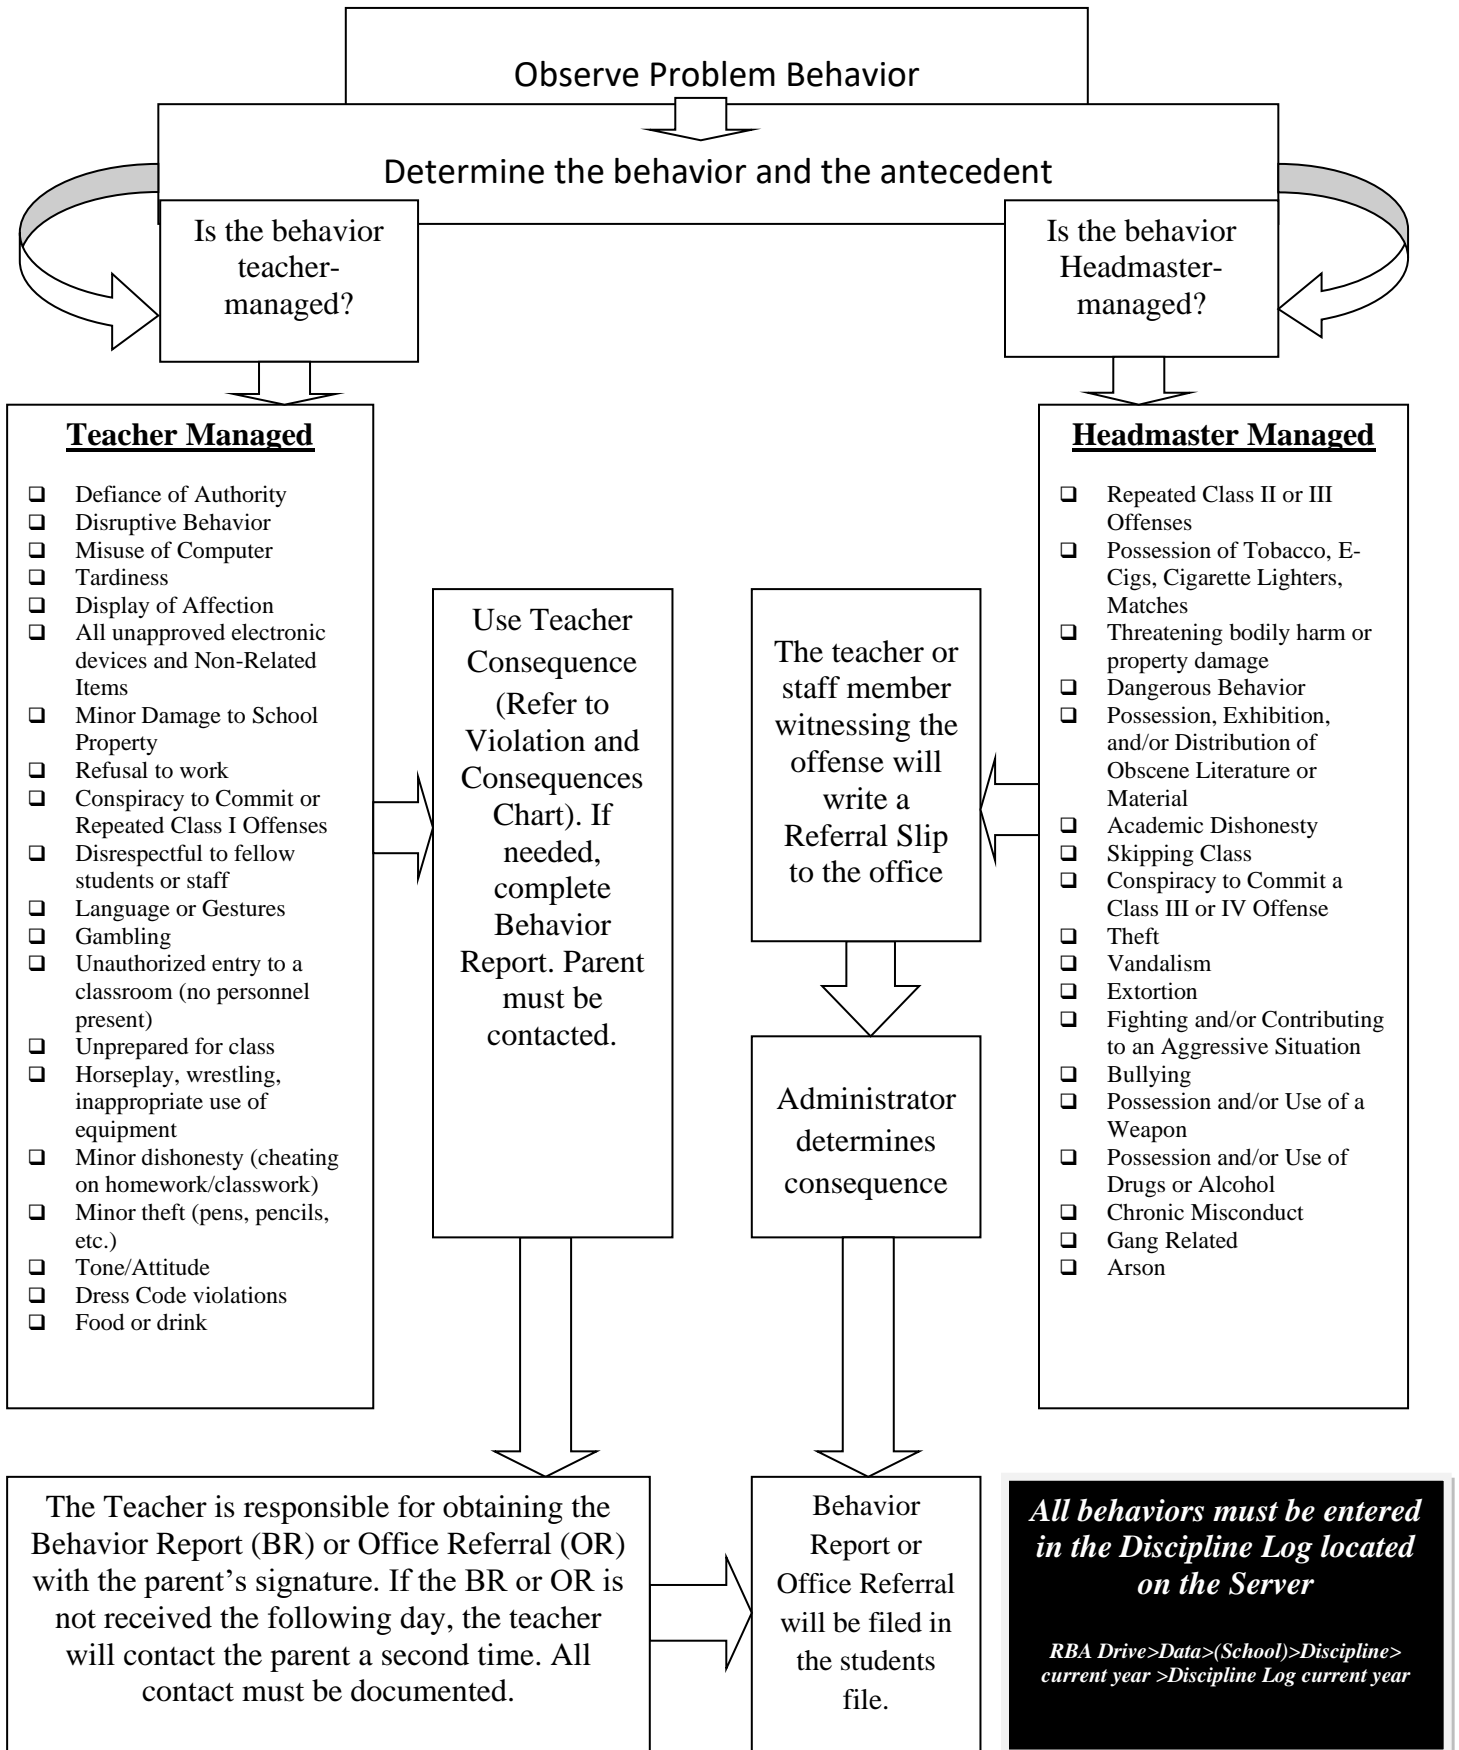

Note: North Carolina Public law states, “Principals, teachers, substitute teachers, voluntary teachers, teacher assistants, and student teachers in the public schools of this State may use reasonable force in the exercise of lawful authority to restrain or correct pupils and maintain order” (NC Public Law 115C-390).

7. Deborah Greenblatt Act (House Bill 1032)

The Deborah Greenblatt Act is a result of the collaboration between attorneys, parent advocates, disability advocates, school staff, and parents that shared concerns about safety issues in schools. The law is designed to address and define strategies for schools that may need to deal with aggressive behavior from students. The law is designed to keep both staff and students safe in the school environment by providing guidelines and training.

The Roger Bacon Academy Schools (RBA) have established guidelines for the use of restraint and provisions for training the staff in the management of student behavior in accordance with the Deborah Greenblatt Act as indicated in the Classical Charter Schools of America Parent/Student Handbook.

Description of Behaviors

The Roger Bacon Academy has developed a description of behaviors identified as inappropriate. The School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan is designed to support students in achieving the desired behaviors set forth by The Roger Bacon Academy. The descriptions will be used as a guide for instructors and administrators when deciding how best to support the student. Consequences may be modified to developmentally appropriate levels on a student-by-student basis.

Class I Behaviors

1. Defiance of Authority – Student’s refusal to comply with a reasonable request from school personnel, or disobeying any general classroom and/or school rule/expectations. No student shall fail to comply with directions or commands from Headmasters, Assistant Headmasters, teachers, substitute teachers, teacher assistants, volunteers, or other authorized school personnel.
2. Disruptive Behavior – Intentional acts or conduct in the classroom or in the school building or upon school grounds, which disrupt the education process.
3. Misuse of Computer – Any misuse of inappropriate computer and/or network practices. Computer privileges will be automatically suspended.
4. Tardiness – Any unexcused lateness to class beyond the scheduled time that the class begins.
5. Display of Affection – The physical demonstration of affection includes, but is not limited to: hugging, holding hands, kissing, etc.
6. Possession/Use of Cell Phone – Student possession or use of cell phones or any unauthorized electronic device is strictly banned during the instructional day, as well as, during extracurricular activities.
7. Non-Related Items on School Property – Students are prohibited from bringing disruptive items to school such as, but not limited to, toys, trading cards, large amounts of money, beepers, cell phones, radios, televisions, iPods, Mp3 players, computer games, or other personal audio and electronic devices. ## General Procedures for Suspensions

The Headmaster or his/her designee has the authority to suspend any student who willfully violates the School-Wide Behavior & Discipline Plan. It is the student's responsibility to make up all missed class work.

As stated in the Parent/Student Handbook, "A student may be suspended or expelled from the school in accordance with Article 27 of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes if the rules continue to not be followed or if the student's conduct, as established by his or her teacher(s), proves to be disruptive or dangerous to other students and/or staff, recognizing the requirements of state and federal law concerning special needs students. Suspension may also occur if a student or parent(s) fails to adhere to the terms of the School Pledge or the rules and policies of the Parent/Student Handbook. Until the length of the suspension has been completed and/or the suspension or expulsion is excused by the Board of Trustees (see Appeals process in the Parent/Student Handbook), the student will not be permitted to return to campus or participate in any off-campus school activities."

The following behaviors will not be tolerated and may result in immediate dismissal or suspension from school without discussion, including but not limited to:

1. Any action or threat of an action that could jeopardize the safety and well-being of others.
2. Possession of illegal drugs (including counterfeit).
3. Possession of a weapon.
4. Repeated willful defiance of a teacher or refusal to follow directions given by an adult in charge.
5. Bullying.

Notification of Suspension

1. The student will be notified either by written or oral notice of the behavior in which he or she participated. The student will be given the opportunity to explain what happened in their own version of the facts. Witnesses (relating only to the incident) may be called in to give an account of what they personally saw or heard.
2. Parents/Guardians will be notified by the Administrator, by phone, or in person, that their child is being suspended. If a suspension occurs toward the end of the academic school day, and the parent/guardian cannot be contacted, the student will be allowed to remain in the office until the end of the school day.
3. Parents/Guardians may request a conference with the Headmaster. However, doing so will not stop the suspension from being enforced.

Emergency Suspension

In the event the Headmaster, or designee, determines that a student's presence is an immediate or continuing danger to persons, property, or an ongoing threat of the disruption of the academic process, they may be immediately removed from the school by the Headmaster, designee, or the local authorities. The Headmaster will notify the parents/guardians of the situation as soon as possible.

Suspensions Greater Than Ten Days

In the event the actions of a student warrant a suspension in excess of ten (10) days, the Headmaster shall suspend the student and notify the parents of the length of the suspension. The Headmaster shall also notify the Board of Trustees of the suspension.

Anti-Bullying Protocol

Bullying Overview

The following is referenced from the Classical Charter Schools of America Board of Trustees –Board Memo 0130713, Anti-Bullying Protocol:

We are committed to providing a safe, positive learning environment for all students. As such, bullying behavior by any student in a school governed by the Classical Charter Schools of America Board of Trustees is strictly prohibited. Such conduct may result in disciplinary action, including suspension and/or expulsion from school.

It shall be a violation of this policy for any student to bully, intimidate, or harass any other student. We will investigate all informal and formal verbal and written complaints of bullying and/or intimidation. Any student who is found to have bullied, intimidated, and/or harassed another student will be disciplined.

Bullying Definition

Below is the definition of Bullying and Harassment as defined by North Carolina General Statute § 115C-407.15:

1. As used in this Article, “bullying or harassing behavior” is any pattern of gestures or written, electronic, or verbal communications, or any physical act or any threatening communication, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, or on a school bus, and that:
  - a. Places a student or school employee in actual and reasonable fear of harm to his or her person or damage to his or her property; or
  - b. Creates or is certain to create a hostile environment by substantially interfering with or impairing a student’s educational performance, opportunities, or benefits. For purposes of this section, “hostile environment” means that the victim subjectively views the conduct as bullying or harassing behavior and the conduct is objectively severe or pervasive enough that a reasonable person would agree that it is bullying or harassing behavior.

Examples of Bullying

Bullying or harassing behavior includes, but is not limited to, acts reasonably perceived as being motivated by any actual or perceived differentiating characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, socioeconomic status, academic status, gender identity, physical appearance, sexual orientation, or mental, physical, developmental, or sensory disability, or by association with a person who has or is perceived to have one or more of these characteristics.

- No student or school employee shall be subjected to bullying or harassing behavior by school employees or students.
- No person shall engage in any act of reprisal or retaliation against a victim, witness, or a person with reliable information about an act of bullying or harassing behavior.
- A school employee who has witnessed or has reliable information that a student or school employee has been subject to any act of bullying or harassing behavior shall report the incident to the appropriate school official.
- A student or volunteer who has witnessed or has or has reliable information that a student or school employee has been subject to any act of bullying or harassing behavior should report the incident to the appropriate school official.

Summary of the School’s Bullying Policy

A party may have been subjected to bullying when he or she is exposed repeatedly over time to negative action on the part of one or more persons and such negative actions are without the party’s consent of when the party knew or should have known his or her behavior could result in such negative action. Negative action is when a person intentionally inflicts injury or significant discomfort upon another person through physical contact, through words, or in other ways.

Students who engage in any act of bullying, on school grounds, at a school-sponsored or school-related activity, function or program whether on or off school grounds, on a school bus or other vehicle owned, leased or used by the School, or through the use of an electronic device or electronic mobile device owned, leased or used by the School, and outside of the school setting if such bullying:

1. Creates a hostile environment at school for the victim.
2. Infringes on the rights of the victim at school.
3. Substantially disrupts the education process or the orderly operation of a school.

Students and/or parents may file verbal or written complaints concerning suspected bullying behavior, and students shall be permitted to anonymously report acts of bullying to school employees. Any report of suspected bullying behavior will be promptly reviewed. If acts of bullying are verified, prompt disciplinary action may be taken against the perpetrator, consistent with his/her rights of due process.
